decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with e pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, thing else can be found so desirable,—ontaining neither oil nor dye, it does not oil white cambrie, and yet least longer on the bair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and gradual partime.
